Prayer

Volunteer.

2 Ways to Volunteer

- 1 Become a prayer volunteer. Choose a time slot of at least 2 hours that fits your schedule, and answer The Upper Room's prayer line.
- 2 Become a prayer partner. Sign up to receive weekly e-mails of prayer requests from The Upper Room Living Prayer Center, and pray for the persons in need.

Both opportunities are available for church groups or for individuals in the privacy of their homes.

The Ministry of The Upper Room Living Prayer Center:

The Living Prayer Center is dedicated to making prayer a way of life. Persons in need call, write letters, or e-mail us to inform us of prayer requests. Over 2,000 volunteers staff the Living Prayer Center's toll-free phone line. Each year the Living Prayer Center responds to more than 350,000 prayer requests.

The Living Prayer Center offers people from many communities an opportunity to participate in prayer ministry through remote linkups and covenant prayer groups. It provides a way for small groups, church leaders, and individuals to be part of a prayer fellowship beyond their local communities. Volunteers receive training, listen to prayer requests, and pray with the callers. These intercessors relay each request to the Living Prayer Center, which forwards them to covenant prayer groups around the world.
